

COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION

NOTICE CURRICULUM REVIEW PROJECT

In collaboration with Caribbean Court of Justice (CCJ), The Council of Legal Education (CLE) continues its Curriculum Review exercise across all territories signatory to the Treaty establishing the Council, namely:

Anguilla, Antigua and Barbuda, Barbados, Belize, The Bahamas, The Cayman Islands, Dominica, Grenada, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, Jamaica, Montserrat, Trinidad and Tobago, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, The British Virgin Islands and the Turks and Caicos.

This initiative forms part of the broader CCJ project entitled Support to the Effective Administration of Criminal Justice Systems in the Caribbean. The Curriculum Review seeks to ensure that CLE's programmes are aligned with the evolving demands of legal practice and are designed to cultivate the 21st-century Caribbean legal professional.

We are pleased to announce the engagement of new consultants for this phase of the project:

Dunn, Pierre, Barnett and Company (Canada Ltd)

Project Leadership:

- Tonya Bastian Galanis C.D. Project Lead, CLE
